Looking for a nice airpark that has good liability coverage?
A super friendly community where residents are like family and aviation camaraderie is "as good as it gets"?

A 3,000' paved & lighted runway w/VASI in a community where homes are mostly modest custom built homes?

A community that is located only about 8 miles from North Carolina's second largest lake and also near hospitals, schools & colleges, grocery & shopping but still has managed to keep a quiet rural setting.

Then you need to look at Gold Hill Airpark in North Carolina.
